Welcome to our 2023 Syllabus

We are pleased to announce the 2023 festival will be held 23rd-26th February (Speech/Classical/Contemporary) and 3rd-5th March (Traditional, Vocal, Dancing, Faith events). We will also have a celebration concert on Saturday afternoon of 18th March to which everyone is invited.

Remember our motto is 'Performance for Everyone!'. This means whatever your age or stage, whether you are an individual or a group, whether you want to have fun and join in, or receive detailed specialist feedback, you are most welcome. We can help you find an event suitable for your needs.

We are known as Inverness Music Festival, but don't forget we also have events for Speech, Debating, Composition, Scottish Country Dancing, and even a primary art competition.

How about perform with a partner - a fun talent show where you can showcase any performance skill. Multigeneration events encouraged!

We are delighted to be at Inverness Methodist Church in 2023 and most grateful to them for their support. Please note that there is NO PARKING at this venue, so you will need to plan your day carefully.

We successfully integrated performance recordings into the festival over the last two years. This is very suitable for those who are too far away, cannot attend on the dates, or even find they are ill on the day.

If it is your first time, the syllabus can be confusing. Please don't hesitate to ask for help and advice. Our email address is invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com.

Don't forget, if performing isn't for you, we always need volunteers and kind supportive audiences.

Watch out for details of 'Join in' events nearer the time. We hope to hold a 'Come and Try' Scottish Country Dancing for families and all ages, for example. We would also like to offer 'Come and Try' organ sessions! How about our trad session for all traditional instruments? If you are interested in these events, it would really help us if you could get in touch. We are always open to other suggestions too.

You will find an 'enter here' link on the homepage of our website (see below) and details on how to register with Play and Perform.

The Closing Date is Monday 20th December.

Online Entries

Any video entries should be submitted online by 20th January (or preferably before) via 'Play and Perform'. Please see our website and Facebook pages for advice about the best way to record and present your videos.

The Online classes will then be adjudicated remotely, and you will be sent a link to view your class. If you have given permission, highlights will be available to view on our Facebook page or on YouTube during the festival period.

Please note that by entering an online class, we expect the class participants to view each other's videos to create an inclusive and supportive environment for all entrants.

Online Musical performers may perform unaccompanied, to a backing track, or we can arrange a pre-recorded bespoke accompaniment for an additional fee.

Video performances can be recorded on any phone with a camera, and do not require highly specialised equipment. However, if you have difficulties accessing a suitable device, please contact us on invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com, and we will try to help.

Live Performances

Live participants need only bring their scores on the day plus an EXTRA photocopy for the adjudicator. You are asked to specify your choice of music for some classes, but you can change your mind.

Live performers may book the festival piano accompanist if they wish for many of our classes, although in most cases traditional music is performed without piano accompaniment. Please specify if you wish to book the festival accompanist and note you will need to provide a copy of the music in advance for them.

And Finally...

We are grateful to the Inverness Common Good Fund for supporting this event.

Please spare a thought for the festival team. The festival depends on support from generous benefactors and supporters. We also need volunteers - in particular anyone with IT and Social Media experience, to help us out in January and February.

We very much hope you will enjoy browsing the syllabus, and please get in touch if you have any questions.

Classical Syllabus

Welcome to the Classical Syllabus for 2023.

If you have not entered the festival before and would like help in finding the best class to suit you, please email invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com

Many classes have an online option which is non-competitive only (NC). However, please note, no participant ever needs to compete if they do not wish to - you can always specify this on the entry form.

Entrants for live classes do not need to upload their score. Please bring a copy of the music for the adjudicator on the day.

Videos for online entry classes must be submitted by 20th January 2023. Please log in to your account and follow the online instructions. Note that for online classes you should upload your score (with the exception of multi-page orchestral copy).

Please also make any changes to your music by 20th January.

Entrants submitting videos should introduce their video with their name, date, title of piece, and Inverness Music Festival. Where two or more pieces are performed they must be submitted on a single video.

Most live sessions will be held at Inverness Methodist Church.

Provisional timetable is as follows: Friday 24th February- Piano. Saturday 25th February - Strings. Sunday pm 26th February- Woodwind and Brass. Depending on entry numbers, some classes may be run on dates either side. Other classes- to be arranged on any of the above. Premier competition: evening Sunday 26th February.

Scottish Traditional Syllabus

The Inverness Music festival 2023 will be held at Inverness Methodist Church.

Traditional classes will take place between Thursday evening 2nd March and Sunday 5th March.

Are you new to festival entries? We are happy to help you find the right class- please email invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com.

If possible, please specify the music you intend to play on the entry form. However, for the live traditional section it is allowable to leave the music to be confirmed (TBC). We fully appreciate that plans can change. If the arrangement performed in a live class is published, please bring a copy on the day for the adjudicator.

Entrants to Virtual Classes will upload a video. They should introduce their video with their name, date, title of piece, and Inverness Music Festival. Published music should have their score uploaded also.

Any videos must be recorded as a single recording per piece and must be uploaded by 20th Jan. Log in to your account and follow the instructions for upload,

Where a graded syllabus has been specified, eg RCS, a piece from an equivalent alternative graded syllabus may be accepted on discussion with the administrator.

The provisional timetable is as follows:

Fiddle and Clarsach - Thursday 2nd March evening, Friday 3rd March. Piping Saturday 4th March.

Ensembles and song, evening Saturday 4th March. Other classes PM Sunday 5th March. These dates are provisional, subject to entry numbers. Premier competition - evening Sunday 5th March.

Vocal (Non-traditional) Syllabus

The Vocal (Non- traditional) section covers all types of contemporary and classical vocal performance, which do not fall under the description of a Scottish traditional song.

Live performance is to be encouraged. The festival accompanist can be requested. However, for those who are unable to enter live, there are online options in the syllabus.

Please note that where there is a live class with an online option, the online entries will be non-competitive (NC).

Large groups will be performing in the Methodist Church. Very large choirs (more than 25 members) should discuss their entry with the festival organiser.

* We hope to hold a Songs of Praise event on the afternoon of Sunday 5th March* This is a sharing event with no feedback or adjudication, just an opportunity to sing. If your choir is interested- whether church choir or community group, please contact invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com.*

If entering an online class, entrants should introduce their video with their name, date, title of piece, and Inverness Music Festival. Log in to your play and perform account and upload your video before 20th January.

Music to be performed must be specified with entry. Copy of music must be uploaded for the adjudicator for online classes. Live entrants should bring music on the day. Videos must be recorded as a single video per entry and must be uploaded by 20th Jan, and changes can only be made up to that date.

Performers in this section should note that if there is no other guidance, it is best practice to perform a published song to avoid copyright issues. Performers may use a backing track, provide their own accompanist, or use the official accompanist.

Vocal Sessions will provisionally run on the weekend of 3rd-5th of March. Friday, Saturday or Sunday afternoon).The venue is Inverness Methodist Church.

Bible Reading

490 Bible Reading Class! Live- Solo or Group/ Online Option

In 1922, Sunday schools and church groups played a big part in the festival, and there were trophies awarded for bible reading.

We revived this class to celebrate our centenary in 2022.

Here's how to take part- there are several ways to get involved.

Have a look at the passage Luke Chapter 10 25-37. (The Good Samaritan)

You can:

Come along and read the verses- from any version of the bible, including children's.

Tell the story in your own words.

If you are a group - read the verses together, or act out the story.

This class is suitable for primary age groups. Sunday school groups may include participants up to 13 years of age and under.

The Free Church of Scotland Scroll will be awarded for a group. There is also a trophy for a solo reading.

This class will take place on Sunday afternoon, 28th February at Inverness Methodist church.

Online entries may be submitted and will be shared on the day.

Fee Solo: £2.00

Group: £5.00 per group

Scottish Country Dancing Syllabus

Adult Scottish Country Dancing is taking a break in 2023 whilst we try out our new venue.

However the good news is that we are running a primary and secondary class for young people. If you are keen dancing adults, why not support a local group of young people to take part? You could reach out to your local school or uniformed group.

Scottish Country Dancing will be held on the afternoon of Saturday March 4th at Inverness Methodist Church.

We hope to follow this with a Come and Try session for all ages- watch out for details.

Finally, we had so much fun with our 'devise a dance' activities for our centenary that we are offering a devise a dance class again- but this time online. This is open to all groups.

Would you like to see other forms of dancing in the festival? Maybe we can accommodate you - please get in touch on invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com with your ideas.

900 Scottish Country Dancing Primary

Primary School aged groups are invited to perform our centenary dance for children. 'Centenary Circle'.

The dance is a 4x32 bar reel for children,

The transcript for the dance and the music is available on request from invernessmusicfestival@gmail.com.

The festival accompanist is available if required.

Award: Primary Schools SCD trophy.

Fee £10.00 per group

901 Scottish Country Dancing Secondary

Secondary aged dancers have two options.

They may perform the winning dance devised to celebrate our centenary in 2022 'Let's have Music and Dance' (instructions and music available on request).

Alternatively, they may perform The College Hornpipe a 32 bar Reel for 3 couples in a 4 couple Longwise set, published in RSCDS Book 20.

The festival accompanist may be booked on request.

A trophy will be awarded.

Fee £12.00 per group

Group of 6 to 8 people

Scottish Country Dance

902 Devise a Scottish Country Dance- - ONLINE

We had so much fun with the devise a dance to celebrate our centenary section last year, groups are invited to devise a dance for 2023! This category focusses on the dance itself rather than the quality of the performance. The Dance can be a Jig, Reel or Strathspey for a 3, 4 or 5 couple set. The dance may be intended for adults or children, and depending on the entries received, may be judged separately.

A video of the dance should be made, and submitted online. The group will receive feedback from our dance expert. A class winner will be awarded. If IT allows, the winning entry will be shown at the live event.

Please remember the closing date for entries is 19th December, but you have until 20th January to upload your video.
